Performance
Workshop 2011

Levels 4, 5 and 6

PHOTOGRAPHY: MARGARET WILLIAMS

INSTRUCTOR, ERICA ROSE JEFFREY. Erica studied dance at the Pittsburgh Ballet School before joining Ballet Internationale. After dancing professionally for several years, she attended Indiana University as a Wells Scholar and has degrees in Ballet and Mediation & Conflict Resolution. She is Co-Director of COUNTERPOINTe.

During the course of this 8-week workshop, dancers will learn and perform variations and repertory from classical ballets, and original contemporary and modern choreography. Rehearsals will be conducted in a Youth Company manner, beginning with an hour-long technique class, which can give students an opportunity to strengthen and improve their technique. The ballet(s) will be cast according to level and ability with more advanced students dancing featured roles. This workshop will conclude with an informal performance on the stage of the Julia Morgan Theater.
